

ILM Delivery and Assessment (18 November 2016)

Institute of Leadership and Management (ILM) course training and assessment

CILM Training and Assessment

- The trainer/ assessor must be qualified to a level above that being delivered in the appropriate discipline.
- Have experience in the appropriate discipline and be certificated to meet the requirements of the Institute of Leadership and Management
- Meet the requirements of ILM in terms of experience and qualifications necessary to assess the Level 3 Award and/ or Certificate in Leadership and Management for the Construction and Built Environment Sector.
- Have a qualification in assessment (D32/D33/A1/TAQA or equivalent).
Have current experience in assessing assignments in the appropriate discipline
- Assessment and feedback will be monitored against the requirements of the qualification and internal/ external quality assurance.

* These qualifications are assessed by means of short answer questions. Assignment submissions will be submitted electronically and will typically include answers to questions relating to training delivered in the most recent session but could also include questions referred from previous sessions.